Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Friday 21 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Wet and windy. Drier in the west.

Today:
Eastern Scotland will be cloudy with outbreaks of rain, the rain heaviest and most persistent across the northeast and through the Borders. Drier in the west and Northern Isles with some bright spells. Cool with fresh to strong northeasterly winds.

Tonight:
The more persistent rain across the northeast and Borders will turn showery, before becoming mainly dry overnight. A few showers across the northwest. Winds easing and chilly by dawn.

Saturday:
It will be a bright day with occasional sunny spells and a scattering of showers. Breezy around the coast.

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Dry and bright for much of Sunday, but showers or longer outbreaks of rain later. Rain or showers on Monday, then drier and brighter on Tuesday. Still rather cool.
